

When young people have the knowledge and skill to manage their financial lives...

The sky's the limit.

Register by June 30 for only $39!

Photo by Jenny Downing - flickr

First Annual Empowerment Summit Chicago Federal Reserve Bank - July 24/25, 2014

Why attend the ANFE Summit?

- You will learn from experts in elementary and secondary education, the non-profit sector and government about the latest efforts to improve financial literacy
- You will be exposed to the best practices in financial education and the most effective tools you can use to further your own efforts
- You will leave with information about programs and strategies tailored to a broad range of age groups and environments
- You will become part of a network of financial education advocates and have the opportunity to continue your relationships after the conference is over
- You will benefit from the Illinois Jump$Start Coalition's ongoing support as you work to improve youth financial capability
- You will receive excellent value for the low fee ($39 till June 30, $79 after), which includes meals, materials, networking and even a chance to win an iPad Mini
- You will enjoy beautiful downtown Chicago in the summertime!

- Close to public transit
- Discounted accommodations
- Overnight parking
- Limited capacity - register early
- Complete details at illinoisjumpstart.org/action-network

